LAFCo Marin County Election Fact Sheet

There are two special district representatives (regular seats) plus an alternate on the LAFCo Board. They serve alternating four-year terms. There are no term limits for these seats.

The remainder of the LAFCo Board is made up of Marin County and City representatives. LAFCo is a sub-agency of the State of California and LAFCo responsible for evaluating and recommending potential consolidations of local government jurisdictions within the County.

Up for nomination and election in 2021

Special District Member (regular seat) Craig Murray's term is set to expire in May 2021.

Regular vs alternate seats

The regular special district member serves on the Commission and is able to vote on all items in front of the Marin LAFCo Commission. The alternate special district member serves on the Commission and is able to participate in Commission meetings but only is allowed to vote on matters when one of the regular special district members is not able to vote on the matter due to absence or conflict of interested.

Two seats not up for nomination

A four-year term ending in May 2023 is currently held by Lew Kious.

The alternate special district member, Tod Moody, is serving a four-year term ending in May 2023.
